

TOMATOES BRING ONLY TWENTY CTS.

Three Hundred Bushels of Red
Vegetables on Market.

Canning Factory's Burning Destroyed
Hopes of Gardeners This Year.

CITY PEOPLE GETTING EVEN.

Tomatoes 20 cents a bushel. Big, red, fine tomatoes that filled a bushel basket to overflowing could be bought for four nickels, this morning on market and citizens walked by and bought bushels for what they paid for a dozen a few weeks ago. It is the city people's time to get even and the marketer has to stand by and sell his fruit for 20 cents a bushel and declare that there is no profit in it. But the city man remembers a few short weeks ago when he was glad to get three small knobby tomatoes for 10 cents, and even bought them in preference to oranges and tropical fruits.

The market was almost one solid red streak this morning, as every marketer's bench sagged under a load of tomatoes. It is estimated that 300 bushels were brought in, and a majority sold for 20 cents a bushel although a few marketers did try to hold up the price to 25 cents a bushel. Paducah never saw a finer crop of tomatoes. Every plant is loaded with the fruit, and as it will not keep the marketer has to bring the tomatoes to market and sell them for what the city man will offer him. The supply is far greater than the demand, although housekeepers are busy now bending over hot stoves and canning tomatoes every way they know how.

Many farmers intended to dispose of their product to the canning factory, but it was destroyed by fire and left them without a market for the product. Then last year the price was high, and every marketer thought a garden of fine tomatoes this summer would be a treasure, but the trouble is that they all thought this. It is the city man's round now, and he walks with a broad smile as he pays 20 cents for tomatoes.

WOMAN'S NIGHTMARE

No woman can be happy without children; it is her nature to love them as much so as it is the beautiful and pure. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass is so fraught with dread that the very thought fills her with apprehension. There is no necessity for the reproduction of life to be either very painful or dangerous. The use of Mother's Friend prepares the system for the coming event, and it is passed without any danger. This remedy is applied externally, and has carried thousands of women through the crisis with but little suffering.

INDEPENDENCE

PARTY TICKET WILL BE PLACED IN FIELD.

Call Made for National Convention of Party of William Randolph Hearst.

New York, July 22.—With one exception all of the president tickets have been named for the November election. The exception is the ticket to be placed in the field by the national party, better known as the National Independent league, of which William R. Hearst is the founder and guiding spirit. The candidate for president and vice president will be named by the National Independent party at a convention to be held in Chicago next week. At the headquarters of the party in this city it was said today that the arrangements for the convention are about completed, and that a large and representative attendance is assured. Great uncertainty exists as to who will head the ticket. Up to the present, there the only person whose name has been at all prominently mentioned in connection with the honor is Thomas L. Hisgen, a man of wealth and a fierce opponent of the trusts, who ran for governor of Massachusetts a year ago on the Independence League ticket.

Upon his recent return from Europe Mr. Hearst had no time in getting down to work in anticipation of the national campaign. It was predicted all along that the Hearst forces would not lift a hand to prevent the nomination of Mr. Bryan by the Democrats, but would work strenuously to prevent the Nebraska election. The prediction did not wait long for fulfillment. The morning following the nomination of Mr. Bryan by the Denver convention the Hearst newspapers in this city contained editorials that made it plain that Mr. Bryan could not count on the support of Hearst in the campaign.

All efforts of Mr. Bryan to conciliate the New York editor will prove futile in the belief of political leaders here. Mr. Hearst has an old score to settle with his contemporary of the "Commoner." After enthusiastically supporting the Nebraska in 1896 and 1900, Mr. Hearst relied upon Mr. Bryan's support in his contest for the Democratic nomination four years ago when the Nebraska leader was not a candidate. But not only did Mr. Bryan refuse to aid Mr. Hearst on that occasion, but seconded the nomination of former Senator Cockrell, of Missouri.

Noted Violin Maker Dead.

New York, July 22.—Baron Karoly Tomaszewsky de Ferenzy, widely known in Europe and this country as a maker of violins, and credited by experts with having re-discovered the cremonese varnish, is dead at Far Rockaway from diabetes, from which he had long suffered. He was forty-eight years old and is survived by a widow and one daughter, Alvina.

To this daughter, a violin maker of ability, he gave the secret of the cremonese varnish on his death bed.

BISHOP POTTER HAS PASSED AWAY

Aged Prelate Dies at Cooperstown, New York.

Called Then Sank Again, Failing to Recover From Last Relapse of Yesterday.

LIFE OF EPISCOPAL CLERGY

Cooperstown, N. Y., July 22.—Bishop Henry Codman Potter, of the Episcopal diocese, died here last night. Death followed a sickness of several weeks which began with stomach trouble and developed complications. For the past week the bishop has appeared to gain, but he suffered a relapse yesterday and all hope of his ultimate recovery was abandoned.

The bishop was unconscious all day and the end which came at 8:35 o'clock was peaceful and quiet.

The prelate was 74 years old. Gathered at the bedside of the dying churchman were Mrs. Potter, wife of the prelate; Mrs. Mason C. Savidge, who came from California, and Miss Sarah Potter, his two daughters, Alonzo Potter, his son; Mr. Edw. S. Clark, Stephen C. Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hyde, his other two daughters, who are abroad, have been notified.

Cause of Death.

Death was due primarily to embolism in the right leg, following a long attack of liver and stomach trouble, and the end was foreseen for several days by the bishop's physicians. Bishop Potter suffered a severe relapse yesterday morning and though oxygen was given his decline was gradual and he sank into unconsciousness early yesterday which lasted until the end.

Bishop Potter's Life.

Bishop Potter was first and foremost churchman in the sense that the Episcopal church uses that word. He came almost naturally by his standing in the church, for both his father and his uncle were bishops. Henry Codman Potter was born in Schenectady, N. Y., May 25, 1835, the son of Bishop Alonzo Potter of the diocese of Pennsylvania. He was educated in the Episcopal Academy, Philadelphia, but like Phillips Brooks he took his divinity course in the famous old Alexandria Theological Seminary in Virginia, graduating therefrom in 1857. Strangely enough he did not have a collegiate education. After his ordination in 1858 his first charge was in Greenburg, Pa., for one year. He then went to St. John's, Troy, where he was rector from 1859 to 1866. He resigned this position to accept the post of assistant rector of Trinity church, Boston, where he continued until he became rector of Grace church, New York. In 1883 he resigned this post to become coadjutor bishop of New York, to his uncle Horatio Potter. The latter died in 1887, and his nephew then became bishop.

Dedicated a Tavern.

The bishop's liberal views on temperance subjected him to considerable criticism. The most striking manifestation of his theory in this regard was the dedication of the famous "subway tavern" in New York, with prayer and an address by the bishop. This subway tavern was a sort of saloon where the working man, it was planned, could go and get his drink quietly without being subjected to vicious influences. It became the center of sensational attention for several months in mercantile New York, but at length it lost its novelty, failed to attract the poorer classes, and within a year or so was abandoned, as a reform saloon, and became very like any other groggery. As a financial experiment also it was a failure.

Journeyed to Europe.

The bishop took many journeys to Europe, where he was received, of course, with marked attention. That this did not disturb his poise in any way was shown by his utterance in London, and his reputation of the same thing when he returned to New York, that "You may depend upon it there is no love between the two countries. I think there is a good deal of gush about the British protestations of love for America."

He was very liberal with his ministers and was especially hearty toward Dr. Rainsford, at whose views and ways many New York churchmen at first looked askance. But one day when a gathering of ministers was at his house Dr. Rainsford arrived late, having just come in from a fishing trip and wearing his angling togs. "This was too much for the bishop and he said abruptly, 'Oh, Rainsford, please go and put on something canonical!'" and Rainsford did.

Two Trips Around World.

In 1889-1900 the bishop made a journey around the world, visiting the Philippines and highly approving the work which Gen. Otis and the U. S. army were doing in that region. In the winter of 1904-05 Bishop Potter took another trip around the world, inspecting the various missionary stations and getting from the journey rich material for addresses, lectures and sermons, and bringing before the eyes of the church what he regarded as the real value of missionary work in foreign lands. In 1903, upon his request for a coadjutor Rev. Dr. David H. Greer, rector of St. Bartholomew's church, was appointed.

Bishop Potter was twice married, first in 1858 to Eliza Rogers Jacob, daughter of one of his parishioners in Greenburg, Pa. Mrs. Potter died June 30, 1901, from heart failure, leaving him five children. In the autumn of 1902 the bishop was married to Mrs. Alfred Corning Clark, a widow of fifty-five.

TOOK NO CHANCES WITH REPUTATION AS PROPHET

Jamestown, N. Y., July 22.—Mrs. Leroy Noble some time ago prophesied that she would die on June 28. On the date she named she died. Yesterday the coroner announced his findings of a chemical analysis of the woman's stomach. She had poisoned herself with strychnine and fulfilled her prophecy.

PATROLMAN SINGERY ON JOB
WHEN PEACE WAS DISTURBED

Three Women and Man, All Colored,
Taken Before Police Judge
Cross.

Tail Patrolman Henry Singery made an effort to clean up the famous "900" at Ninth and Washington streets, yesterday afternoon when he arrested Hettie Pratt, Leona Hall, Cinda Greer and Charles Howell, all colored, charged with breach of the peace. While Patrolman Singery was at dinner the four were alleged to have kicked up a stir, and made themselves objectionable generally. Delegates to the Moslems heard the row, and the respectable colored citizens wanted it stopped.

Patrolman Singery arrested the four, and at the police station they were shocked at being arrested, as they told Captain Harlan that they had not been arrested in a whole year. This morning in police court the three women pleaded guilty, and Judge Cross fined each 50 days in the county jail. The commonwealth failed to establish a case against Howell, and he was dismissed.

"BLACKHAND" INSURANCE IS THE LLOYD'S LATEST.

New York, July 22.—A new form of break insurance, recently issued by Lloyd's of London, is "Blackhand" insurance, which has recently been taken out by lease holders in New York in the districts where dynamite outrages have been most frequent, for the reason that ordinary fire insurance is no protection against damage from explosion, unless it is followed by an actual fire. It is said that "Blackhand" policies have recently been taken out to cover a number of Astor tenement house properties in New York.

Said She Was of Age.

It is quite convenient to change one's age when it comes to getting a license for marriage, and the county clerk has been the victim several times. This morning a bashful young man slipped into the office and wanted a license. He said his bride was 20 years old, and then Mr. Smalley stopped for she was too young. The book was slapped together, but the man said he might be mistaken and he would ask her as she was out in the hall. In a minute she came in and promptly said she was 21 and the clerk could do nothing but issue the license.

Ever Realize

That mental or physical exertion uses up tissue-cells that must be rebuilt daily by proper food?

If strength and the power to "do things" are to be kept at highest efficiency, the human body must have Right Food to rebuild brain and nerve cells, and to keep in store the tremendous amount of "energy" required now-a-days to "strike the gait" that wins money and fame.

That's the mission of

Grape-Nuts

food. It has stood the test with thousands of sturdy, thinking people for more than a decade, and is in greater favor now than ever before.

Grape-Nuts is scientifically made of wheat and barley; contains the necessary phosphate of potash grown in the grains for cell-building, and soluble Grape-Sugar (dextrose) for energy-storing.

Try cutting out meat and heavy, greasy food for breakfast and lunch—

A Little Fruit,

Saucer of Grape-Nuts, with Cream

A Soft-boiled Egg

Slice of Crisp Toast

Cup of Postum---

Enough to keep one comfortable and "in trim" for business no matter how hot the weather.

SHORT STORY

Food That Changed His Life.

Many level-headed business men pay too little attention to what they eat until sickness attacks them.

Sedentary occupation, improper food and daily resort to drugs, coffee or liquors to "smother" the disease has put many a good man away.

"For many years my labors have been entirely indoors," writes a New York man.

"Naturally want of exercise, coupled with hasty eating of lunch with more or less greasy food and pastry told on my digestion.

"For a long period I tried scores of remedies without avail, and finally I was compelled to resign my position as secretary of an important business association. My weight had run down from 145 to 118 pounds. I was unable to sleep naturally, rose refreshed and without ambition, simply dragged about, feeling more dead than alive.

"Finally I was advised by a friend to try Grape-Nuts and promised to give it a fair trial. I began the following day, and to make a long story short, in less than a year I have revolutionized my physical and mental condition, now weigh close to 150 pounds, and can digest all my food, which is eaten with relish. This change is due to Grape-Nuts."
